PARENT COACHING AGREEMENT Pamela L. Green, J.D. Certified Life Coach

Nature and Purpose of Coaching:

The purpose of parent coaching is for clients to have access to professional advice that may cover a variety of parenting topics, including co-parenting communication, parent/child communication, trial testimony preparation and preparation for a Social Early Neutral Evaluation or custody evaluation. As the coach, I may offer advice based on my training and experience, with a goal of facilitating optimal decision-making by the client and enabling the client to perform well in the situations they find challenging.

Records and Confidentiality:

Each of our sessions and conversations are documented in a file that is established for each participant. Your file is available for your review, but it must remain in our offices. All information that you share with me is private, which means it will not be shared without your written consent or by a court order. However, as your coach I will need to take appropriate preventive action if you express an intention to harm yourself or someone else. Additionally, while I am under no legal obligation to do so, I do comply with mandatory reporting laws concerning abuse or neglect of children, the elderly and vulnerable adults.

Fees and Cancellation Policy:

Fees for me to act as your parent coach are $175 per hour. These fees apply to all time spent as your coach, including in-person meetings, phone consultations, making notes to the file and/or preparing for an in-person meeting, and drafting documents.

Charges for in-person meetings are to be paid at the conclusion of each meeting. A deposit equal to 5 hours of time at the applicable hourly rate must be paid before coaching services begin. Funds paid as deposit are held in a non-interest bearing savings account and will not be withdrawn until applicable fees are earned.

The funds on deposit are applied to time spent for any service other than in-person meetings; examples are reading and responding to email communication, review of written documents such as court orders, and review of electronic communication such as OurFamilyWizard. The deposit must be replenished within 15 days of receipt of the monthly billing statement. Any funds left on deposit will be refunded when the parent coaching process has ended.

If you are unable to keep an appointment you must notify our office 24 hours in advance. If advance notice is not received, you are responsible for paying for the missed appointment.

Parent coaching services can be terminated at any time by the coach or the client upon 30 days advance written notification of intention to terminate services. You are responsible for all outstanding charges existing at the time of termination.
